

WE WANT THE BLESSED SACRAMENT BACK!

BY CATHOLICVOTE

SPECIAL NOTE: Jesus called us to be as wise as serpents, innocent as doves. In this case, my friend Michael Caspino might be wiser than the serpents. Please read this important guest message from the attorney representing Archbishop Coakley in the fight over the planned Black Mass in Oklahoma.

Dear Friend of CatholicVote,

Have you heard about the “Black Mass” that a Satanist group has planned for next month in Oklahoma City?

The fake mass mocking our Faith is bad enough. But the Satanic group behind it has bragged that they have a consecrated host and intend to use it.

This must be stopped.

My own prayer and consultation with legal friends prompted an idea. So today I filed a lawsuit on behalf of Oklahoma City Archbishop Paul Coakley demanding that that consecrated host be returned to the Church immediately.

The lawsuit is simple: a consecrated host only comes from the Catholic Church. Satanists acquired the host by theft or fraud – both of which are illegal ways of acquiring property. That means that the Satanists have a legal obligation to return the stolen property.

And guess what...

The judge has ordered the Satanists not to destroy the host.

Furthermore, the lawsuit demands that the Satanists return the consecrated host to Archbishop Coakley in 5 days — or the judge may order them to do so.

In our lawsuit, Archbishop Coakley explains that not only is the consecrated host the rightful property of the Catholic Church, it is literally priceless. No value can be placed on the body, blood, soul and divinity of Christ.

So this is where you come in...

I'm willing to fight these black mass efforts with the law anywhere and everywhere they pop up.

But I also know there's one thing that Archbishop Coakley would want you to do: Pray.

Archbishop to Satanic Group:
GIVE US BACK THE EUCHARIST!

The Saint Michael prayer is the prayer he has asked Catholics everywhere to pray to win this fight. Will you join me in praying this prayer for the next 5 days?

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.

*Be our defense against the wickedness
and snares of the Devil.*

*May God rebuke him, we humbly
pray,
and do thou,*

*O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.*

Comment “yes” or simply “Like” this on Facebook to tell the CatholicVote.org team that you are praying.

I will let the Archbishop know that you are praying for him, and the Church in Oklahoma City.

For the Faith,

Michael W. Caspino, J.D.

Archbishop Coakley's Statement on Return of Stolen Host to the Catholic Church

OKLAHOMA CITY (Aug. 21, 2014) – Archbishop Coakley announced Thursday that the consecrated Host at the center of a lawsuit filed in Oklahoma County District Court has been returned.

An attorney representing the head of the satanic group presented the Host to a Catholic priest Thursday afternoon. The lawsuit sought return of the Host following multiple public statements by the head of the local satanic group that they planned to defile and desecrate the consecrated Host during a satanic 'black mass' scheduled next month in Oklahoma City.

With the return of the Host and an accompanying signed statement from the satanic group leader that the group no longer possesses a consecrated Host, nor will they use a consecrated Host in their rituals, the archbishop agreed to dismiss the lawsuit with prejudice.

"I am relieved that we have been able to secure the return of the sacred Host, and that we have prevented its desecration as part of a planned satanic ritual," said Archbishop Paul Coakley of the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City. "I remain concerned about the dark powers that this satanic worship invites into our community and the spiritual danger that this poses to all who are involved in it, directly or indirectly."

Archbishop Coakley has made repeated requests for the city's leaders to cancel the satanic ritual in a publicly funded facility.

"I have raised my concerns ... and pointed out how deeply offensive this proposed sacrilegious act is to Christians and especially to the more than 250,000 Catholics who live in Oklahoma."

On Sept. 21, the day the satanic ritual has been scheduled, the archbishop invites the Catholic community as well as all Christians and people of good will to join him in prayer for a Eucharistic Holy Hour at 3 p.m. at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 1901 NW 18, followed by an outdoor Procession and Benediction.

"For more than 1 billion Catholics worldwide, the Mass is the most sacred of religious rituals," the archbishop said. "It is the center of Catholic worship and celebrates Jesus Christ's redemption of the world by his death and resurrection. We are grateful for the gift of the Eucharist and pray that this threatened sacrilege will heighten our appreciation and deepen our faith in the Lord's Eucharistic presence among us."
